Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

Confidential information · mutual

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between the two parties named below (each a "Party" and together the "Parties"). Each Party may share confidential information with the other, and each Party agrees to protect it as set out below.

Service Details

Party A: _____

Party B: _____

Purpose (what you are working on together): _____

Effective date: _____

1. What Counts as Confidential

Confidential Information means anything one Party shares with the other that is not public, including: unreleased music, beats, videos, and lyrics; business terms, pricing, and contract terms; client and artist lists; and personal information. It does not matter whether the information is marked confidential.

2. No Disclosure

Neither Party will disclose the other Party's Confidential Information to any third party without the other Party's written consent.

3. No Other Use

Neither Party will use the other Party's Confidential Information except to evaluate or carry out the work the Parties have agreed on.

4. Unreleased Creative Work

Unreleased creative work stays confidential until its public release. Neither Party will share, play, post, or leak the other Party's unreleased music, beats, videos, or lyrics.

5. How Long It Lasts

These obligations last for two (2) years from the date the Confidential Information was disclosed.

6. No License, No Obligation to Do Business

This Agreement grants no license and creates no obligation for the Parties to do business together.

7. Return or Destroy

On a Party's written request, the other Party will return or destroy that Party's Confidential Information.

8. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of South Carolina.

9. Entire Agreement

This Agreement is the entire agreement between the Parties about confidentiality, and it replaces any earlier promises about the same subject.
